

The High School U.S. History Classroom
The U.S. Civil War and Reconstruction and its effects on the American People
COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Name: The U.S. Civil War and Reconstruction and its effects on the American People

Continuing Education Hours: 5 Continuing Education Hours

Instructors of Record: Florida Joint Center for Citizenship at the Lou Frey Institute staff

Contact: stephen.masyada@ucf.edu
valerie.mcvey@ucf.edu

Registration: This course has enabled open enrollment.
Participants can self-enroll in the course here: <https://canvas.instructure.com/enroll/AMPACA>.
Or, sign up at <https://canvas.instructure.com/register> and use the following join code:
AMPACA.

Course Description:

The High School United States History Classroom program provides social studies educators with online, self-paced, professional learning.

The U.S. Civil War and Reconstruction and its effects on the American People Course focuses on understanding the major ideas of the cause, course, and consequences of the Civil War and Reconstruction Era. Participants will study primary sources, apply disciplinary literacy skills to demonstrate learning, and prepare for instruction by utilizing strategies and structures to make content accessible to all learners.

Course Objectives:

- Module One
 - Participants will understand how this course will prepare them for instruction that is student-centered, utilizes primary sources, and is scaffolded to support all learners
- Module Two
 - Participants will be able to differentiate between planning and preparing for instruction.
 - Participants will be able to identify and utilize reading and instructional strategies that support student understanding.
 - Participants will understand the preparation protocol and be prepared to apply it to their instructional practices.

Lou Frey
Institute

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

- Module Three
 - Participants will understand the major ideas of the causes, course, and consequences of the Civil War and Reconstruction Era by studying primary sources and applying disciplinary literacy skills to demonstrate learning.
 - Participants prepare for the development of a lesson plan by identifying potential barriers and challenges and determining which specific scaffolds and supports will best meet the needs of all learners.
- Module Four
 - Participants will use the preparation protocol to prepare for instruction using the provided lesson plan, with a focus on making content accessible to all learners.
 - Participants will demonstrate an understanding of the course content and strategies by developing an individualized lesson preparation protocol that includes specific scaffolds and supports to meet the needs of all learners in their classroom.

Evaluation and Grading:

Successful completion of the introduction survey, pre and post-tests, module quizzes, post-course survey, and final passing grade is required for points to be awarded.

Quizzes: Participants must complete all course assessments with a minimum score in order to continue through the course. Scoring varies by module.

Final Grade and Credit: A minimum score of 70 is required for successful course completion.

Accessibility Statement:

The Lou Frey Institute is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for all persons with disabilities. This syllabus is available in alternate formats upon request. Students with disabilities who need accommodations in this course must contact the instructor at the beginning of the course to discuss needed accommodations.

Copyright:

This course may contain copyright protected materials such as audio or video clips, images, text materials, etc. These items are being used with regard to the Fair Use doctrine in order to enhance the learning environment. Please do not copy, duplicate, download or distribute these items. The use of these materials is strictly reserved for this online classroom environment and your use only. All copyright materials are credited to the copyright holder.

Third-Party Software and FERPA:

During this course you might have the opportunity to use public online services and/or software applications sometimes called third-party software such as a blog or wiki. While some of these could be required assignments, you need not make any personally identifying information on a public site. Do not post or provide any private information about yourself or your classmates. Where appropriate you may use a pseudonym or nickname. If you have any concerns about this, please contact your instructor.

Lou Frey
Institute

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

