Question	The political campaign posters below are for two candidates running for mayor.   ★ Do You Want Your Mayor To Work For You? ★ VOTE MARIA SMITH FOR MAYOR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College Graduate • 5 Years City Council Member • 2 Years City Planning Commission • 4 Years School Board President Maria Knows What It Takes To Get The Job Done   ★ Will Work Hard for the City! ★ VOTE TODD DAVIS FOR MAYOR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College Graduate • 1 Year Little League Coach • 2 Years Boy Scout Assistant Troop Leader • Volunteer Firefighter Todd Takes His Job Seriously   According to the information on the posters, what is the reason Maria could be considered more qualified than Todd to be elected mayor?	Compare and contrast the two political campaign posters. Evaluate both candidates based on the qualifications listed on the posters. The correct answer should identify the unique accomplishments that make Maria a better candidate than Todd.
A	her political policies	Incorrect – Neither poster lists any specific political policy positions.
B	her college education	Incorrect – Both Todd Davis and Maria Smith are college graduates, so this qualification would not make Maria more qualified than Todd.
C	her campaign promises	Incorrect – Neither poster lists any specific campaign promises. Also, a “qualification” is an accomplishment; a campaign promise is something that has not yet been accomplished.
D	her experience working in government	Correct – Maria has served 5 years on the city council, 2 years on the city planning commission, and 4 years on the school board. All three jobs are part of local government, and Maria is running for mayor, which is also a locally elected position. Todd does not list any locally elected government experiences on his poster.

A	Doug is running for judge.	Incorrect – Judges interpret the laws; they do not create new policies. Also, immigration and military policies are federal powers, and federal judges are not elected.
B	Doug is running for mayor.	Incorrect – Mayors cannot set immigration nor military policy because those are federal powers, and mayors are part of the executive branch of local governments.
C	Doug is running for president.	Correct – The President of the United States, as Commander-in-Chief, is the highest civilian officer of the military according to Article II of the U.S. Constitution. Immigration is also an enumerated power of the federal government, and the President is a member of the national executive branch.
D	Doug is running for city council.	Incorrect – City council members cannot set immigration or military policy because those are federal powers, and the city council is a local legislative office.
