

Politics in Action: A Project Based Learning Workshop for A.P. U.S. Government and Politics Teachers

Politics in Action is a project-based approach to learning that involves students engaging in political discourse and real-world scenarios to learn about U.S. government principles and policies. Participants will develop strategies to support students as they grapple with the complexities of the course content through a series of simulations designed to augment and enrich the learning environment.

UCF

Lou Frey Institute

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

FLORIDA JOINT CENTER FOR CITIZENSHIP

Join

FJCC Content Specialist and Professor of Political Science at the University of Central Florida, Dr. Terri Susan Fine, and FJCC Curriculum Director, Chris Spinale, as they explain the Politics in Action design principles and the ways in which they can be incorporated into the course content and instructional practice.

Click here to register.

Program Information

- ✓ WHEN: Saturday, May 14 from 8:30am-3:30pm
- ✓ WHERE: Lou Frey Institute, 12443 Research Parkway, Suite 406, Orlando, 32826
- ✓ WHO: This is open to Advanced Placement U.S. Government and Politics teachers.
- ✓ WHAT: Participants will receive a $200 stipend for attending the workshop.

Important

Breakfast & lunch will be provided.
Travel expenses will not be covered.
Space is limited to 30 participants. Registration is required and is on a first come, first served basis.
Deadline to register is April 29. If the maximum number of participants is reached prior to April 29, registration will be closed.

Questions? Contact Chris Spinale at christopher.spinale@ucf.edu