

I Spy Script

Teacher Note: These are only suggestions. You may use different clues to help your students recognize the symbols. You will want to mix up the order.

Mount Rushmore

- I spy with my little eye, four presidents hanging out together.

Washington Monument

- I spy with my little eye a very tall building that was made to honor a president.

Uncle Sam

- I spy with my little eye someone wearing the colors of the U.S. flag.

Susan B. Anthony

- I spy with my little eye someone who fought for women's right to vote.

Booker T. Washington

- I spy with my little eye someone who fought for Black civil rights.

Alexander Hamilton

- I spy with my little eye a founding father who knew a lot about money.

James Madison

- I spy with my little eye the "Father of the U.S. Constitution".

U.S. Constitution

- I spy with my little eye a document that was signed on September 17, 1787.

Constitutional Convention

- I spy with my little eye a group meeting to create a new government.