

Sample Answers Morning Timeline

Time	Activity	Government Involved (Services Provided)
6:00 a.m.	Turned on the lights	Local government (utilities)
6:05 a.m.	Brushed teeth	Local government (utilities)
6:10 a.m.	Used the toilet	Local government (utilities)
6:45 a.m.	Started driving to school with my mom	State government (driver's license)
7:00 a.m.	Stopped at a fast food restaurant for breakfast	State government (business license)
7:15 a.m.	Got on I-4 to drive to school	State government (state road)
7:30 a.m.	Arrived at school	State government (funding for schools)
7:45 a.m.	Handed in my sports permission slip	Local government (parks and recreation)
7:50 a.m.	Said hello to the school safety officer	Local government (police force)
8:00 a.m.	Began the school day in math class	State government (teacher's certificate)

Checking for Understanding – Sample Answer

The conclusion that I can draw about government services based on my timeline of the morning is that more than one level of government is involved in my daily activities. Both the local and state government play an integral role in my daily life. The local government provides services I need at home and at school such as: utilities, safety, and activities. The state government ensures I have safe roads to travel and qualified educators to teach me.