

ANSWER KEY

1838 Constitution

- Only white men in office
- Cannot pass laws emancipating slaves
- Anyone with slaves can come to Florida
- Must be at least 21, white, male, and lived in FL 2 years to vote
- Senators & Representatives serve 2 year terms
- soldiers, marines, and seamen who were stationed in FL are not considered residents and cannot vote (unless they were residents prior to their enlistment)

1868 Constitution

- Any race can hold office
- All men are equal, no slavery allowed
- Must be at least 21, male, lived in FL 1 year, and pledge an oath of loyalty to vote
- Senators & Representatives serve 4 year terms
- You cannot serve in office if you participated/aided in an insurrection or rebellion

- only males can vote
- only males can serve in office
- must be 21 to vote
- must be a resident to vote