

Four Corners

Citizen Responsibilities
Scenarios

Directions

Overview: Read and reflect on each scenario. Then move to a "corner" that matches your choice of which responsibility is reflected.

After answers are revealed, summarize the scenario example on your activity sheet.

STUDENT CORNERS

Corner A - Volunteering

Corner B - Being informed

Corner C - Respecting laws

Corner D - Corresponding with public officials

SCENARIO #1

Every morning on your drive to school, you listen to a radio station that summarizes top news headlines for that day.

STUDENT CORNERS

Corner A - Volunteering

Corner B - Being informed

Corner C - Respecting laws

Corner D - Corresponding with public officials

SCENARIO #2

There is a park close to where you live that could be a great place to hang out, but it's full of gross trash, and the landscaping has not been maintained. Your school student government group organizes a community clean-up event.

STUDENT CORNERS

Corner A - Volunteering

Corner B - Being informed

Corner C - Respecting laws

Corner D - Corresponding with public officials

SCENARIO #3

The candidates seeking the presidential nomination for the Republican party are debating tonight on T.V. You tune in and watch!

STUDENT CORNERS

Corner A - Volunteering

Corner B - Being informed

Corner C - Respecting laws

Corner D - Corresponding with public officials

SCENARIO #4

As a member of the Sea Turtle Preservation Society, you are helping to organize a “Save the Sea Turtles” march downtown. You go to city hall to file a permit.

STUDENT CORNERS

Corner A - Volunteering

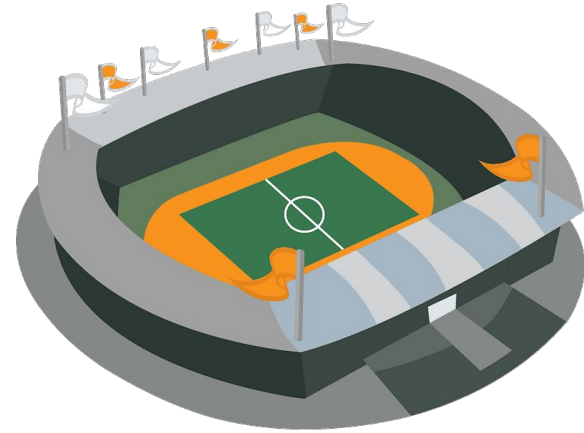

Corner B - Being informed

Corner C - Respecting laws

Corner D - Corresponding with public officials

SCENARIO #5

The wheelchair-accessible area near the school bleachers does not have a very good view of the field. You email your city councilperson and ask for a meeting to discuss.

STUDENT CORNERS

Corner A - Volunteering

Corner B - Being informed

Corner C - Respecting laws

Corner D - Corresponding with public officials

SCENARIO #6

You attend a school board meeting to provide public comment on why your school district should consider offering pickleball as a varsity sport.

STUDENT CORNERS

Corner A - Volunteering

Corner B - Being informed

Corner C - Respecting laws

Corner D - Corresponding with public officials