

1789 - 1920

Main Method of Communication:

Notable President(s):

Example of Communication:

Strengths/Weaknesses:

1960 - 2000

Main Method of Communication:

Notable President(s):

Example of Communication:

Strengths/Weaknesses:

1920 - 1960

Main Method of Communication:

Notable President(s):

Example of Communication:

Strengths/Weaknesses:

2000 - PRESENT

Main Method of Communication:

Notable President(s):

Example of Communication:

Strengths/Weaknesses:

Prompt: You have decided to run for office. You hope to win an election for an open seat on your district's school board. Which form of political communication will you use during your campaign? How will you communicate with your constituents if elected? Justify your answer.