

Outsiders Looking In...

Things Foreigners Love about the United States...

- Diversity (people, landscape, food)
- Convenience of many things
- Ability to go back to school or change jobs and advance yourself
- Your cereal has marshmallows!
- Technology
- Entertainment
- Military
- The way you protect individual rights

Things Foreigners Find Interesting about the United States...

- What we call meals (appetizer, entree)
- Taxes and tipping isn't included in listed prices and tipping is expected
- That we don't usually pay for water at restaurants...and the water is pretty good!
- We eat desserts for breakfast
- We talk to strangers and are overly friendly
- How much we drive/lack of public transportation
- The wide array of places we show patriotism (American flags on everything-even clothing)
