

Assessment Questions

Directions: Answer the following questions. Answers should be complete sentences and include evidence from notes and data collected to support answers.

1. What type of government offers the most economic freedoms for its citizens? How can these freedoms lead to prosperity? What evidence can you use to support your position?
2. What are some key disadvantages of living in authoritarian controlled economies such as communism and socialism? What evidence can you use to support your position?